Hague, April 22, N. S.

ACcording to the Advices received here Yesterday, the Elector of Mentz died in Silesia the 10th Instant. The same Advices add, that the Elector of Cologn had begun to cause his Orders which he lately published in his Dominions for seizing all the Prussians of what Condition soever, to be put in Execution, by stopping and confining a Prussian Officer with three Recruits for the Regiment of tall Grenadiers, as they were passing through Munster. The States of the Province of Holland are to meet To-morrow.

St. James's, April 10.

This Day Prince Cantemir, Resident from the Czarina, had his first private Audience of their Royal Highnesses the Princess Royal, and the Princesses Amelia and Caroline; to which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, April, 11. This Day Prince Cantemir, Resident from the Czarina, had his first private Audience of their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Mary and Louisa; to which he was introduced by the Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, March 29, 1732.

Whereas about Michaelmas last past, two Stables and a Barn in the Town of Bedall in Yorkshire, belonging to the Rectory of the said Town, were set on Fire and consumed, and at several Times the said Town has been attempted to be burnt: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in so heinous a Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement, Henry Peirse, of the said Town of Bedall, Esq; promises a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any one of them, or to any other Person or Persons who shall make such Discovery, as aforesaid, to be paid on Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Hen. Peirse.

Whitehall, April 3, 1732.

Whereas on the 27th of March last past, at Night, the Surveyor of His Majesty's Customs at Deal, with eleven other Officers, endeavouring to prevent the Running of a great Quantity of Goods newly landed in St. Margaret's Bay, and to seize the same, were opposed by between Twenty and Thirty Persons armed, who killed Richard Hill, one of the Custom-house Boatmen, and very much beat and bruised three others of the Officers: For the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons who were concerned in so notorious a Murder of an Officer in the Execution of his Duty, his Majesty is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one or more of them, (except the Person or Persons who actually murder'd the said Hill) who will discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And as a further Encouragement for such Discovery, His Majesty is also pleased to promise to any of them, or to any other Person or Persons who shall discover the Murtherers, or either of them, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, a Reward of Fifty Pounds for each Person who shall be apprehended and convicted, to be paid on the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders
